TERMS: Full payment is due on the day of sale. All payments must be made by cash or personal or business check with proper ID. Once an item is announced "SOLD", it becomes the buyer's sole responsibility to take care of any and all purchases made during the sale, including the payment for all said purchases prior to leaving the premises. Successful bidders for firearms must complete required paperwork with the Sheriff's Office on the day of the sale. Items will be available for inspection two hours prior to the sale. Potential firearms buyers may prequalify during the viewing/registration hours. Any and all items are sold "As Is, Where Is, without any Warranties Given or Implied." All sales are final and no refunds given. The removal of any purchases will be at the buyer's own risk. Webster County, its staff and/or seller is not responsible for accidents or theft. All announcements made on the day of the sale will take precedence over any other printed materials, verbal statements or any previous statements that may have been made.
